COL. R. G. EVANS PLEDGES BOYLE TO BECKHAM

Former Governor Given Magnificent Reception When He Speaks In Danville for Wilson

The valiant democracy of Boyle county which suffered the humiliation of seeing its chosen representative betray it, when Lillard voted for Bradley, was pledged to rectify the wrong then done, by Col. Robert G. Evans, on last Saturday, when he introduced former Governor J. C. W. Beckham to an audience which taxed the capacity of the courthouse. Gov. Beckham was there, speaking on behalf of the national democratic ticket, and Col. Evans in introducing him, took a happy occasion to pledge him that the democracy of Boyle will be found voting solidly for him for the nomination for senator in the primary next year. Col. Evans' eloquent introduction of the distinguished and beloved leader, was as follows:

"The highest and noblest feeling planted by God in the human heart is that of justice. It is the foundation on which are builded all governments which live. It is the foundation on which is builded every character which learns its duty well and which helps the world to ripen for higher and better things. It is the force behind the inspiring thought:

"Then, on, then on where duty leads My course be onward still."

"But when justice is half written into the statute books, or half forgotten, or trampled upon and strangled by Prætorian guards, then does the government, however, ancient, and however glorious totter to its fall and its greatness and its glory live only on the pages of history.

"Governments too often fail to properly reward or remember certain of their servants who have rendered brave and heroic service, who have been conspicuous in deeds and efforts, which resulted in planting above their country or their state lights which were to shine forever. By this indifference many patriots and heroes sleep in unknown or forgotten graves. And yet they live.

"That government walks a cripple which allows the man who has done the state a great service to fail of his reward. The man who has had the peculiar courage to bravely stand out and right a wrong is the real statesman, is the man whose name should be a household word and help to keep the fires burning on the altars of every home.

"There is no virtue so truly great and God-like as justice, and Kentucky, so brave and true in all else, will not be—is not—lacking in this great virtue.

"To the southwest of the green plains that girdle the rock of Saltzburgh the peasants of the valley point out to the traveler a spot far up among its limestone crags, and tell him that within Barbarossa lies amid his knights in an enchanted sleep, waiting the hour when the ravens shall cease to hover round the peak, and the pear tree again blossom in the valley to descend and bring back to Germany the golden age of peace and strength and unity.

"Just so, in our own fair and beloved state. How often in the unhappy days which have followed since the rape of a United States Senatorship in the old statehouse at Frankfort, when Boyle county's victory Boyle county's sacred promise, Boyle county's honor were whistled down the wind a prey to fortune, yea more were made the bedraggled companion of treason—how often, since those unhappy days, have we of Boyle county sighed for the day when justice should awaken from her long sleep and her shield should be brought back and hung aloft again, as of old, in the midst of the camp, bearing the bright and shining and glorious words:

"Fair play has come home. The square deal stands waiting to right a wrong. Kentucky's pride and honor, Boyle county's promise and manhood are redeemed—redeemed, for justice has awakened, Beckham has come into his own and Boyle county pledges him, above any and all, her loyal and undivided support."

The Advocate said: "Col. Evans' speech was received with tremendous applause, the sentiment of which appealed to the sterling democrats of Boyle county, which stands ready to make reparation to Gov. Beckham and to reclaim its good name. More people than the court house could accommodate greeted Gov. Beckham when he arose to speak, a large number being turned away. Gov. Beckham then launched upon his speech, which was interrupted with sincere applause and was one of the most brilliant of his career as his reception here had given him an inspiration."

Crap Shooters Caught

Night Policeman John Meeks raided a crap game late Friday night and caught Pete Craig, Sandy Cook and Jim Baughman, colored, and a white boy named Jones. The negroes were tried in Judge Menefee's court Monday morning and Craig and Cook were fine $20 each, while Baughman was acquitted, it developing that he was merely an on-looker. Jones has not yet been tried.

DEFEATED 18 TO 0

High School Football Team Beaten By Deaf Boys—School News

(By James Cooper.)

The Stanford High School team played its second game of the season with the eleven from the School for the Deaf of Danville on Friday afternoon and Stanford was defeated by a score of 18 to 0. The game was a rather rough one from start to finish. The deaf boys have an excellent team this season, and while the home boys are sady crippled by the absence from the line-up of a number of the best men of the past seasons, still they put up a good hard game. Each member of the local eleven played well, considering the few games and little practice indulged in this year, and nearly all of the local boys are playing their first time in the line-up. The line-up of the two elevens was as follows:

S. H. S.	position	S. for D.
T. Coleman	left tackle	M. yers
H. Davis	left guard	Wilder
Grimes	center	Dyer
Mobley	right guard	Myers
J. Hill	right tackle	Leitchfield
Hoeker	right end	Dedman
S. Hill	quarterback	Turner
C. Coleman	left half	Queen
H. Farmer	full back	Mennier

Touchdowns were made by Turner and McGarrigal in the first quarter and by Leitchfield in the third quarter. No goal was kicked.

The Graded school football team played Danville's public school team last Saturday on the C. U. grounds at Danville; at least, that was the team they went over there to play, but before the game was over, rather than be beaten, Danville put in even some of the C. U. men. With such a line-up against them, the graded school boys put up a remarkably good game, but lost, 13 to 0. All of the Stanford team had never practiced together, and if they get out and work this week, they are sure to beat them over here this coming Saturday. Each one played a clean game and it was very interesting from start to finish. With "Hughes" along as chapman, everything went off all right. The line-up was as follows:

Stanford	position	Danville
C. VonGruenigen	left end	Rogers
W. Mobley	left tackle	Williams
E. Givens	left guard	Harmon
H. Wilkinson	center	King
C. Cooper	right guard	Veach
J. Hoeker	right tackle	Parks
P. Brown	right end	Jean
H. Shanks	quarterback	Scota
W. Carson	left half	Rogers
J. T. Embry	right half	Dunn
R. Powell	full back	Frank

M'KINNEY VOTERS

Turn Out In Large Numbers To Hear Democratic Speeches

By far the best crowd that has greeted a public speaker in McKinney in years gathered here Monday evening to hear Hon. Henry Breckinridge and Hon. Oscar Letcher, who are stumping the state in the interest of the democratic ticket. And right well was the audience paid for its coming. Mr. Breckinridge spoke first and for an hour held the attention of his hearers with an exhaustive and instructive discussion of the tariff and its evils. Mr. Breckinridge is an earnest and convincing speaker, and he gave his hearers something to think about.

Mr. Letcher was next introduced by W. S. Burch and immediately launched into a summary of the political situation as portrayed by Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, saying that the charges each was making against the other were, no doubt, well founded, as a very close acquaintance had heretofore existed between the two men. He is something of an orator, tells a joke well and has the happy faculty of pleasing all who hear him.

Democracy is in the pink of condition everywhere, the speakers declared, and they are confident that the election of Wilson and Marshall is only a question of majority if the democrats will only go to the polls on election day.

Precinct Campaign Chairman S. M. Owens, who presided and worked up the big meeting, says that all the prominent democrats of his section will be in Stanford for the closing rally on the afternoon of Nov. 2.

A Severe Sickness Leaves The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly

FINAL RALLY

Of Campaign to be Held Here For Democracy on Nov. 2

County Campaign Chairman W. L. McCarty has been advised by State Campaign Chairman Camden that Saturday, November 2, has been set apart by the State Campaign Committee for the final rallying of the democratic hosts in Kentucky prior to the decisive battle on November 5th. In the county seat of every county in the state at 2 o'clock that afternoon there will be one or more speeches delivered in the interest of the national democratic ticket and the congressional nominees.

Chairman McCarty has been notified that a speaker of recognized ability will be sent to Stanford on that date and he is making every effort to make this a memorable day for democracy. In addition to the speaker yet to be named, the best local talent will be heard and every thing points to a gala day for democracy on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 2d. In the meantime every point in the county will be thoroughly canvassed and the voters kept constantly in touch with the speakers' bureau, so that they may be advised of the situation politically and otherwise, not only locally but in the nation.

Each issue of the I. J. will contain a list of the speaking appointments for the county as they are announced by Chairman McCarty. All of them will take place between now and Nov. 2d, when the finishing touches so far as Lincoln county is concerned will be made by the assembling of the democratic hosts at the courthouse for a general love feast and flow of democratic oratory. Let every democrat attend and see that his neighbor does likewise.

PITCHED BATTLE FOUGHT OVER IN PULASKI

When Relatives Try to Take Alleged Murderer Away From Chief Of Police Henry Waddle

Somerset, Ky., Oct. 20—A regular running pitched battle between Chief of Police H. G. Waddle, of Somerset, and two deputies on the one side, and a number of relatives of James Phelps, a prisoner occurred about 10 o'clock this morning, 12 miles east of Somerset, in Pulaski county. Chief Waddle thinks one man was killed or at least badly wounded, as he saw him fall after he fired and during the exchange of shots between the chief and his deputies and the relatives, who were trying to rescue the prisoner from the officers.

It is charged that Phelps some months ago shot and killed Riley Price, who was one of the most prominent teachers in the county, and who had served a term as assessor of Pulaski county, as the latter was riding horseback on his way to his school. The killing took place in a secluded spot, where the road skirted a clump of bushes and the weapon was a shotgun loaded with buckshot.

Phelps left the country at the time, it is alleged and had not been heard of. A reward was offered by Gov. McCreary for his arrest. Chief Waddle got news of the fact that Phelps had been seen around his old home place and he left for there this morning, and found him at home in company with some others.

The officers took him by surprise and arrested him. He asked permission to telephone his sweetheart saying he would come to Somerset to jail with them. He evidently gave warning for they had not gotten far with their prisoner until a number of relatives and friends overtook the officers and demanded that the prisoner be released.

Chief Waddle says the firing began after one of the men had administered a hard kick to him and that a volley of shots was fired. The officers then proceeded with the prisoner toward Somerset and stopped for lunch several miles from the scene of the first trouble, and here they received a telephone message from a friend, warning them to hurry on as a crowd was on their trail to retake the prisoner from them.

Chief Waddle says they had not gone far when they were again overtaken and another pitched battle occurred, and it was in this fight he saw one of the men fall, and he thinks he was killed, while he believes several others were wounded. None of the officers was wounded. They arrived at Somerset with the prisoner and placed him in jail. The only statement the prisoner made with reference to the killing of Price was that he had to do it.

The Lancaster High school football team plays here next Friday.

United States Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, known all over the south as the man who tried to revive the animosities that were buried with the surrender of Lee nearly 50 years ago, died at Washington City, last week of heart trouble. A few years ago, during a discussion on the floor of the senate, this man went out of his way to abuse the sacred memory of Jefferson Davis, when a measure was being debated, anent the merits of those Confederate heroes whose statues were to be placed in the Hall of Fame. Heyburn's strictures on the South were very properly ignored, even by his brethren of the North and he will, at least, so far as southern people are concerned, pass into that oblivion from which he sprang, his memory unwept, his deeds unhonored and the words of his slanderous tongue unsung. He will go down in history, if perchance he is

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardui.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

BACKACHE

NOT A DISEASE

But a Symptom, a Danger Signal Which Every Woman Should Heed.

Backache is a symptom of organic weakness or derangement. If you have backache don't neglect it. To get permanent relief you must reach the root of the trouble. Read about Mrs. Woodall's experience.

Morton's Gap, Kentucky.—"I suffered two years with female disorders, my health was very bad and I had a continual backache which was simply awful. I could not stand on my feet long enough to cook a meal's victuals without my back nearly killing me, and I would have such dragging sensations I could hardly bear it. I had soreness in each side, could not stand tight clothing, and was irregular. I was completely run down. On advice I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am enjoying good health. It is now more than two years and I have not had an ache or pain since. I do all my own work, washing and everything, and never have backache any more. I think your medicine is grand and I praise it to all my neighbors. If you think my testimony will help others you may publish it."—Mrs. OLLIE WOODALL, Morton's Gap, Kentucky.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

called at my office for another bottle of medicine, which was his last call. A month or so afterwards a neighbor of his called and got a bottle of the same medicine, saying that my patient was practically a well man, attending to his duties about his large farm.

I had given him the Neutralizing Mixture which was a remedy that I had used before only for bowel diseases. The same remedy that has since been sold under the name of Peruna. I could not quite understand how it was that Peruna should operate so beneficially in such seemingly different diseases. I had not yet grasped the correct philosophy of disease. I did not then clearly comprehend that catarrh may affect the kidneys as well as the bowels. Nothing of that sort was taught in the books in those days. It took me years before I clearly comprehended that catarrh was a disease liable to attack any organ of the body.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membranes. The mucous membranes line every organ, duct and cavity in the body. Thus it is catarrh may settle anywhere where there is a mucous membrane.

Peruna is my remedy for all these cases. I insist upon it, however, that Peruna is not a cure-all. I use it for just one disease, catarrh. But as catarrh is liable to affect so many different places, disturb so many different functions, derange so many different organs, it does seem to many people as if I regarded Peruna as a cure-all.

The above narrative is simply one of the many cases in my early practice that brought me to comprehend the wonderful efficacy of Peruna in such a variety of diseases. The kidneys may be affected by other diseases than catarrh, but the average case of kidney disease is catarrh of the kidneys. All cases of Bright's disease begin with catarrh of the kidneys. This being true, and it also being true that Peruna is a catarrh remedy, it follows that a great many cases of kidney disease would be benefited by Peruna. PERUNA SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Serious Kidney Disease Treated By an Old - Fashioned Doctor

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D. C

In 1860 I was practicing medicine in Millersville, Pennsylvania, a thriving farming community. A prominent citizen of that locality called at my office one day in a very feeble condition. So much so he had to be assisted in alighting from his wagon.

I found on questioning him that he had been afflicted for about two years. He had consulted various doctors, among them a specialist from Philadelphia. They pronounced his disease to be Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was gradually failing in strength, losing flesh rapidly, and altogether presented a very pitiable spectacle, the remnant of a once strong and happy man.

I had been treating a neighbor of his successfully. This neighbor had highly recommended me and thus it was he had come to me.

He told me that the doctors had practically given up his case as hopeless and he felt free to consult any other physician. I hesitated to take the case, as I felt sure I could not do anything more than the other physicians had done. I told him so, yet he insisted upon my prescribing. I was a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, and as one of the consulting physicians had been a professor in that college it seemed to me quite unlikely that I would be able to do any more than had been done, but I prescribed what seemed to be the best thing under the circumstances.

He went away and in a week he returned saying he was no better, that he was still losing ground. He judged that he had taken the same medicine before. No doubt he had. But he wished me to prescribe again. I did so.

This went on for about two months, the patient failing all the time, and I was becoming thoroughly discouraged with the case.

One day the patient said to me, "Doctor, why don't you give me the medicine you gave my neighbor? We all thought he would die, but your medicine cured him. This was why I came to you. Why not give me the same medicine you gave him?"

"But," I said, "your neighbor did not have kidney disease. It was a bowel complaint that I prescribed for in his case. I remember I gave him the Neutralizing Mixture that I make a great deal of use of in bowel diseases."

"Well, I want some of the same medicine you gave him. It worked wonders with him and I believe it will with me."

"But," I said, "this is not a medicine for kidney disease."

"Well, since you seem to be like the rest of the doctors, you cannot help me, why not try the medicine that helped my neighbor?"

After some hesitation I concluded to give him a bottle of it. In ten days he returned. He at once began to berate me in no complimentary words, saying:

"You knew very well this medicine would help me. You held it back merely to get more fees for treating me. From the first the medicine has helped me and I have made rapid improvement. If I could have had this medicine a year ago I should have been saved a great deal of expense and loss of time."

I replied that I was glad the medicine had helped him. I was somewhat confused by his brusque manner and rough speech. I gave him another bottle of medicine. Did not see him again for about three weeks. Once more he

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We just want you to give D.D.D. a trial. That will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee.—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.
